Lily Scal was born in Saint Priest en Jarez (France) on December 13 2006. She started dancing at 10 years old. Since 2021, Lily has been studying at the CNED, the french official homeschool system, to live her passion.

Lily trains more than 30 hours a week to hopefully become an international dancer. She has been participating for 3 years in several National and International competitions (Italy/ Switzerland/ France/ Belgium...) She is 5 times French champion and she participated at the world championships where she represented France.

She is trained by Mae PIGA and Tatiana DEWAS. Mae is four times European champion, seven times world champion, trained at the famous Broadway Dance Center in New York and shone in the most prestigious shows in Shanghai and in numerous TV shows worldwide . Tatiana is a former classical dancer from the London Royal Ballet.
